DEER SURPRISE

My sister and I were bored. We went for a walk in the forest. After a few minutes we heard a sound.

“Ssh!” my sister said. We stopped. We were very quiet.

Something was walking in the woods! “I hope it’s not a mountain lion,” I said. I had read a story about a mountain lion the day before. I got a creepy feeling!

My sister pointed. “Look!” she whispered. We saw three deer: a doe and her two baby fawns. They were brown with white tails. They had big, brown eyes. “I bet the babies are twins,” my sister said. “Deer often have twins.”

We stood very still. We kept our voices very quiet. Then we got a big surprise. Three more deer came out of the woods and walked onto the trail! I had never seen deer up close, and now I could see six of them! They were so pretty!

One buck was very big, with big antlers. “Buck” is what you call a male deer. He stood very still. He looked around. We watched him open his mouth. Then he roared! It was very loud. Then he ran off into the woods. The other deer followed him.

My sister and I were very happy that we saw those deer. We weren’t bored anymore!
